

THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART

PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICE
CLEVELAND, OHIO 44106
TELEPHONE 421-7346

PD - 10/30
Press - 10/29/66
Sun Press - 10/27/66

M. 10/14/66

MUSEUM AUDITORIUM LECTURE November 2, 8:30 p.m.

George H. Cohen, whose paintings and constructions are currently on exhibit at The Cleveland Museum of Art, will lecture there about THE CHANGING VIEW OF MODERN ART, Wednesday, November 2 at 8:30 p.m. Mr. Cohen, also presently a professor in the art department at Northwestern University, is professionally a lecturer and designer as well. He studied at the Institute of Design in Chicago and with Herbert Barnett and Kenneth Shopen. He is associated with the Society of Cinematologists and the Committee on Art Education. He has exhibited his work many times, including several one-man shows.